WEATHER PROBABILITIES. Sept. 8, 1880. For the Middle Atlantic States falling followed by stationary or rising barometer, light easterly or north easterly winds, cloudy weather and rain.

THE SUSPECTED VESSEL.—The Emma J. Lewis, from Cuba, bound to Washington, suspected of having yellow fever on board, is known to have passed the Cape on her way up the river, but Dr. Meade and others of the Health Department of Washington, who went down the river yesterday, could hear nothing of her. To-day Health Officer Townsend, Dr. H. E. Leach, Inspector of Marine Products Sutton, Gen. Einstein, J. M. Dixon and others, on their way down the river from Washington, stopped here, and Dr. Townsend had an interview with Dr. Stabler and Mayor Smith, in which it was determined to establish the quarantine at Fort Foote, instead of at the Magazine, just above this city, the place originally selected. The patrol of the river will be kept up for about two weeks. By this time all of the five vessels reported as having left Havana for Washington will be in the Potomac, if it is ascertained that they are coming at all. Every precaution will be taken to protect this city and Washington. The National Board of Health have decided to defray the expenses incident to the work, and will appoint an inspector to co-operate with the District authorities.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES GREEN.—Mr. James Green, one of Alexandria's oldest citizens, died at the Mansion House, in this city, after a long illness, at five o'clock this morning, after a long illness. Mr. Green was a man universally respected and esteemed for his many excellent traits of character. He was true to his convictions and thoroughly upright and conscientious. The deceased was born in Sheffield, England, November 24, 1801, and was consequently at the time of his death in the 79th year of his age. He came to this city in 1817. In 1823 he established a cabinet manufactory here, which, under his management, grew to be as widely known as any establishment of the kind in the country. By perseverance and industry the deceased accumulated a large amount of property, and at the time of his retirement from business, a few years since, was one of the largest real estate owners in the city. He leaves a large and highly respected family. Mr. Green's esteemed wife preceded him to the grave by only a few weeks.

COMPLIMENTARY BANQUET.—Mr. J. Wilbur Brown, who for several years past has been the efficient manager of the Singer Manufacturing Company, in this city, left last night to take charge of that company's office at Charlottesville. His friends, in token of appreciation of his many noble qualities, tendered him a banquet before he left for his new field of labor, at the Terrace Hotel. A party of twenty gathered there to partake of all the delicacies of the season, flavored by a host of toasts. Many toasts were drunk to Mr. Brown's health, happiness and prosperity, and deep were the regrets expressed at parting with him. Mr. Brown came here two years ago as entire stranger; he leaves with a host of friends made by his gentlemanly bearing and genial quality, combined with business capacity, such as few of his age can master. Mr. Charles E. Brown has been appointed Mr. Brown's successor in this city.

POTOMAC FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the Potomac Fruit Growers' Association was held last night in Washington. The exhibition of grapes and apples was very fine. A report was received from the committee on excursion stating that the last excursion was a financial success. It was decided to give the last excursion of the association, for this season, on September 14. The steamer W. W. Chapman and Mary Washington were chartered for the occasion. Upon the latter boat there will be an exhibition of fruits and flowers. The address of the evening was delivered by Mr. G. T. Needham, who gave an interesting talk on the newer varieties of grapes. Among those he specially commended were the Lady Washington, Moore's Early, the Albino, and the Abyssinian. A fine exhibition of fruits was made by Dr. A. H. McKim, among them some Peaches, pears.

REV. MR. PEACE.—It has been stated that Rev. Mr. Peace would be appointed to the pulpit of the Methodist Street M. E. Church, Alexandria, Ind., and that Rev. W. C. Webb, the present pastor of that church, had signified his willingness to take charge of Mr. Peace's church in this city. There was some foundation for the statement, but Mr. Peace, on his recent visit to Indianapolis, learning that Rev. C. M. Simms, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a former popular pastor, after having declined to return to the church, had decided, upon certain conditions, to accept an appointment to that charge, had decided to have his name further considered in that connection. Rev. Mr. Peace's appointment in this city will not expire until next spring.

GAME PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.—The Alexandria Game Protective Association held a meeting Monday night at the Treasurer's office, with Peter Anderson in the chair and M. B. Harlow secretary.

It was decided, in view of the extreme warm weather and low tides, to postpone the game dinner, which was to have taken place tomorrow, until Tuesday, the 14th inst.

The reward of $5, offered by the association, for the first person violating the game law of the State had the desired effect, for, notwithstanding several poaches had been guilty of violating the law before the reward was offered, no one was reported after the association determined to push off-feeding parties.

THE ALEXANDRIA FAIR.—The exhibition of the Alexandria and Fairfax Agricultural and Industrial Association this year bids fair to be one of the best ever given by this association, judging from the active preparations that are now going on for the accommodation of exhibitors and the comfort and convenience of visitors. Among those who have already secured space in the main building are G. Wm. Ramsay, J. E. Carlin & Son, Geo. R. Hill & Co., E. J. Miller & Co., W. H. May & Son, Herbert Bryant, S. Waterman & Son, of this city, J. T. Henderson & Co., of Washington, and Martin Gullett & Co., of Baltimore.

COOL WEATHER AGAIN.—The sultry atmosphere of the past few days has been superseded by decidedly cooler weather, and this morning, in fact all day, the temperature has been unaccountably low, rendering them quite rather unseasonable. A stiff breeze from the northeast, accompanied by some rain, has given unto the river a wild and weird look, and rattled window sash, slammed blinds and creaked old signs as it is wont to do in March. The appearance, too, on the streets of a worthy but much abused corporation official encased in a huge cape, the tails of which were flapping to and fro, imparted to things out of doors a decidedly wintry aspect.

ALEXANDRIA INDUSTRIES.—Among all the industries in this city, none are more deserving of mention than the flourishing establishment of Messrs. Nalls & Co., on Union street. These gentlemen have recently placed in their mill one of Welsh Brother's patent wheat meal purifiers, which has greatly improved the quality of their flour. The machine is so placed in the mill that the meal in passing through it from the burrs is purified, and all the high coloring matter removed, which, in the process of bolting, discolors the flour. The machine is entirely new in the art of milling, and any one desiring

THE FIRST AND THE UNION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES.

—The following letter explains itself:

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 7, 1880.

To the Committee of the First Presbyterian Church:

GENTLEMEN.—At a meeting of the Session of the Union Church held last evening, the following resolutions were unanimously passed, to-wit:

"Resolved, That the Board of Deacons be respectfully recommended to accept the construction placed upon the agreement between the two churches for the occupancy of the church building, as construed by the committee of the First Church and to continue to occupy the church during the month of September, and that the meeting of Presbytery be held hereinafter as previously arranged."

Under the circumstances and from information in the possession of the Board at the time, they feel justified in their action in giving up the keys of the church, but for the sake of peace, and good fellowship, as professing Christians they will acquiesce in the foregoing "resolution," and will continue to occupy the church as proposed to your last communication.

By order of the Board of Session.

Wm. H. Smith, Sec.

Board of Deacons U. P. Church.

CORPORATION COURT.—Hon. A. W. Chilton, Judge, presiding.—D. S. Watkins and wife vs. John T. Evans; chancery; report of commissioner of sale filed and decree confirming same. Virginia Stewart vs. J. C. O'Neill, adm'r., &c.; chancery; decree adjudging John T. Evans, jr., to be dead, (he having left the State in the year 1866 and nothing having been heard of him since), and that he died before his father, John T. Evans, sr., and that the three surviving children of John T. Evans, sr., are entitled to equal shares to the whole of the personality of which he, the said John T. Evans, sr., died the owner and possessor, and directing the administrator to make certain distributions to said surviving children.

AMUSEMENTS AT ARMY HALL.—Arrangements have been perfected with Mr. S. Smith Russell for the production of "Edgewood Folks," a piece written especially for Mr. R., on Monday, November 8th. The following is from the New York Mercury of the 5th instant: "People who want to laugh find their desire in this respect more than gratified by Sol Smith Russell's 'Edgewood Folks,' at Abbey's elegant Park Theatre. The past has been a most prosperous week at this house, and from current indications the rush for 'face and ignominy' will continue uninterrupted until the close of Mr. Russell's engagement, three weeks hence."

AN OLD ESTABLISHMENT WITH A YOUNG HEAD.—It will be seen that Mr. Robert L. Adams has purchased the stock and good will of the old established house of W. W. Adams, and intends to infuse into it new life and vigor. Mr. Adams has just returned from the North, where he has purchased a very large and handsome stock of jewelry, silverware, watches, clocks, &c., and in a few days will have them on exhibition for sale. Mr. A. will employ the most skillful workmen, and will seek to make his establishment worthy of its former reputation.

SHIP YARD NEWS.—The men engaged to rig the new schooner recently launched at the ship yard have arrived from Philadelphia, and the work of fitting out the vessel will be commenced at once. Preparations for hoisting the masts of the schooner in position have already begun.

The steamship E. C. Knight, which has been thoroughly repaired, at the ship yard, was placed on the New York route yesterday, and the steamer John Gibson, of the same route, will go to the yard for repairs this week.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN THE COUNTY.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the requisitions of the county, with overflowing enthusiasm, will indulge in a ratification meeting to-night in Arlington District. The caucus "Nelle Grant," has been secured for the occasion, and a host of speakers invited, among them Mr. Clapp, of Washington, Judge Willoughby, Major Sampson P. Bayly, and Messrs. Edmund Burke and Louis E. Payson. A big time is expected.

THIRD WARD REPUBLICANS.—The Republicans of the 3rd ward met at the old Court House last night. Randolph Thompson presided and James Backer acted as secretary. A committee was appointed to canvass and ascertain how many voters there are in the ward who have not paid their capitation tax. The calling of a new convention was talked about, and the impression seemed to prevail that if another convention is held Major Bayly will receive the nomination.

PERSONAL.—George N. McCauley, esq., editor of the Mount Pleasant, Pa., Times and Mining Journal, was in the city yesterday. Rev. Mr. Pierce, of the M. E. Church, left the city to-day for a Western trip. Mr. Crawford Crook, of the United States mail service, stationed at Cincinnati, is here on a short visit to friends.

WEDDING.—Mr. Stephen Woolis, formerly of Alexandria, but now of Richmond, was married in St. Mary's Church, in this city, last afternoon, by Rev. Dennis O'Keefe, to Miss Kate M. Stoughton, the daughter of the late Jas. A. Stoughton. Mr. Woolis and his young bride have the warm wishes of a host of friends and acquaintances here.

THE COAL TRADE.—The official returns from the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company in Cumberland state that during the week ending Saturday, Sept. 4, 1880, 224 boats left that port, carrying 25,233,011 tons of coal and 11 tons of general merchandise.

PROSPECTIVE ITEM.—The plank walk on Union street, between Queen and Princess under which the tide of the beautiful Potomac ebbs and flows twice in twenty four hours, is at present in a condition to furnish a first class item.

ILL.—Miss Ellen Baggett, the wife of Mr. Townsend Baggett, who was stricken with paralysis Sunday last, at her residence near the "Stone Bridge," still continues seriously ill.

ERRATUM.—In Mr. Barbour's letter, published in yesterday's Gazette, the word "exception" was improperly printed "excursion" and in that part referring to the section of the convention in making the nomination. The intelligent reader doubtless perceived the mistake at once, but we deem it proper to make the correction, and ask the attention of the other papers in the district to it.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient.—The reddening leaves begin to fall; late summer clouds hang over all. Precocious chestnuts soon will drop, and frost fall on the mountain's top. Prepare for winter's winds and snows, ere you feel its chill sharp blows. Then go at once to STANBURY'S store, and have your stores all made secure. [McBurney's Building.]

RETURNING FROM THE COUNTRY.—Complete outfits for the boys will be needed, and we can assure parents that they may save at least 20 per cent, if they select from the assortment at the Boys' Clothing House of B. ROBINSON & Co., 909 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

SPECIAL TRIP TO OCCOQUAN FALLS.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 8, 1880. The steamer MARY WASHINGTON will leave her wharf at 10 a. m., returning at 8 p. m. Music and Dancing. Round trip 25c. It is a most desirable excursion.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS

Jersey City, Sept. 8.—A 12 o'clock train from New York City, bound for Boston, while in the station of G. Miller, on Hudson street, was seized by a mob of about 100 men, who were about paying for their tickets. The mob, who were armed with clubs and stones, rushed into the train and seized the passengers. The train was held for some time, and the passengers were treated with great violence. The mob then released the train, and it proceeded on its way to Boston.
